

Congregation Beth David is hosting a Summer Comedy & Concert Series

CBD is pleased to announce that multiple Grammy winner Tom Chapin, well-known singer/songwriter Jonathan Edwards, and two laugh-out-loud comics will be presenting an exciting and entertaining summer fundraising series.

Our series will begin with a comedy night on Saturday, June 16. Kerri Louise, a New York comic who was a semi-finalist on NBC's Last Comic Standing and Boston's Steve Sweeney will entertain us. Multiple Grammy winner Tom Chapin joins us on July 28, and the iconic Jonathan Edwards appears on August 25.

All performances begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Narragansett Community Center, 53 Mumford Road, Narragansett.

Series tickets are $100 per person for all three performances. If you buy the tickets for individual performances, the comedy night is $30 per person; and the Chapin and Edwards performances are $40 per person.

Seating is limited, so we urge you to buy your tickets early. Please mail your ticket order and payment to Congregation Beth David, P.O. Box 3299, Narragansett, RI 02882, or call (401) 789-3437.

Comedy Night – June 16

Kerri Louise, a New York comic, was a semi-finalist in NBC's Last Comic Standing, has been a regular on Oprah Winfrey, and appeared on Comedy Central, The View, plus several other TV credits. She also performs at top comedy clubs and festivals. Besides being a semi-finalist on Last Comic Standing, she was first runner-up in the Bud Lights Ladies of Laughter, and a semi-finalist in the San Francisco Comedy Competition.

Boston based Steve Sweeney, a master of dialects and character voices, has appeared with the likes of Jay Leno, been featured on major television shows, including Dave Letterman, Evening at the Improv, Comics Come Home, and Comedy Central. Steve has acted in several Hollywood movies, including The Forger, The Equalizer, There's Something About Mary, Southie and more.

Tom Chapin – July 28

The New York Times has called Tom Chapin “one of the great personalities in contemporary music.” A winner of three Grammy awards, Tom has recorded 25 albums.

He has maintained two very successful parallel careers – as a folk artist and as a pioneer in the field of children’s music. In both roles, Tom has established a reputation for insightful, heartfelt songcraft and effortlessly charismatic live performances.

Tom began performing professionally as a teenager in the early 1960s, playing in Greenwich Village folk clubs with his siblings Harry and Steve as the Chapin Brothers. He was also host of the Emmy and Peabody award-winning ABC-TV children’s series, Make a Wish.

Jonathan Edwards – August 25

Jonathan Edwards has had a stellar career. His 17 albums (including the recently released Tomorrow’s Child) include such hits as Sunshine (Go Away Today), Shanty, Honkey Tonk Stardust Cowboy, and One Day Closer.

He sings songs of passion, songs of insight, songs of humor, all rendered in that pure and powerful tenor which, like fine wine, has only grown sweeter with age.

Jonathan is an artist who measures success by his ability to attract and take good care of an audience for four decades. He is also the recipient of a National Library Association award for his collection of children’s songs, Little Hands.
